FINANCIAL REGULATIONS

Adopted 19th November 2019

To be reviewed every 4 years or when required by changes in government regulations.

Preamble

From time to time the National Association of Local Councils, which is the governing body for Local Councils, publishes a model set of financial regulations. This model is comprehensive and covers the activities that Councils of every size might engage in. Because Local Councils vary so much the provisions in the model are not necessarily universally applicable so councils have some discretion to amend the model to suit their particular circumstances.

Sections which are not relevant to Crayke have been marked as “n/a” (not applicable) and the text removed. Some sections have been left in to allow for the possibility that Crayke may engage in the activity in the future, e.g. taking out a loan or letting contracts over £25,000.

Square brackets, [ ], indicate sections which may not be relevant to every Council or where Councils are asked to set their own limits etc.. A turquoise highlight indicates a quantity chosen by the council.
